

Do not be angry with each other, but forgive each other.

If someone does wrong to you, then forgive him.

Forgive each other because the Lord forgave you.

Colossians 3:13

Destiny
Children's Ministry

The servant was so happy to be forgiven by the king for his debt.
Can you remember what happened next in the story Jesus told?
What does this story teach us about how we should treat others?
You can find the story in Matthew 18:21-35