Psalm 37:4

Psalm 1 says that when we love God's teaching we will be strong, like a tree by a river, with lots of fruit and protected by God.
Colour the picture, adding a river nearby and some fruit to the tree.

Psalm I

Happy is the person who doesn't listen to the wicked.
He doesn't go where sinners go.
He doesn't do what bad people do.
He loves the Lord's teachings.
He thinks about those teachings
day and night.

He is strong, like a tree planted by a river.
It produces fruit in season.
Its leaves don't die.
Everything he does will succeed.

But wicked people are not like that.
They are like useless chaff
that the wind blows away.
So the wicked will not
escape God's punishment.
Sinners will not worship
God with good people.
This is because the Lord protects good people.
But the wicked will be destroyed.

Good Fruit!

The 'fruit' of our life is what we produce. When we love God's teaching and follow him with our whole hearts we will produce good fruit. Write or draw an example of that good fruit in each of these shapes.
